Austin's Aeneid 1 and 4 in Modern Greek

The Editor thanks Professor W.S. Watt for generously presenting him with copies of the Greek translations of R.G. Austin's Commentaries on Aeneid 1 and 4. It is a particular pleasure to note that these have reached us in what the Society was moved at its February meeting to commemorate as Austin's centenary year. The volumes are extremely handsome and include a new and useful feature, an Index Locorum. The title pages are here reproduced by kind permission of the Publishers, University Studio Press, Thessaloniki.
